Congratulations On Your Decision!

Whether you have already made this life changing decision or are still contemplating the idea, we are here to help answer your questions and walk beside you through this transition. As you move on to the next amazing chapter of your life, the City, and all of your co-workers would like to extend to you a heartfelt thank you for all of your years of employment, innovative ideas, and service to the citizens of De Pere.

The process of retiring involves months of anticipation and preparation. To ensure your retirement plans progress without delay, this handbook was compiled to assist you in managing your retirement. This handbook outlines procedures, timelines, and resources to assist in making your retirement as efficient and enjoyable as possible.

This handbook is not intended to replace the information found in the collective bargaining agreements, the City's policies, employee benefit plan books, HRA Employee Information Packet/Frequently Asked Questions, or the Flex Spending Employee Information Packet. This document is only a summary of the key information needed to assist with your retirement planning.

It is important for you to understand that the City's policies, benefits, bargaining agreements, state/federal laws, etc., are all subject to change. The information in this handbook is current as of the date it was prepared and updated.

Employee benefits, policies, contact information, and other information in this document are subject to change without notice.

Things to Consider Before You Retire

Deciding when and where to retire is one of the most important decisions of our lives, and everyone should do their homework before taking this big step. This check list isn't an all-inclusive list, but it is a good place to start!

1. Figure out what you want to do in retirement.

If you approach retirement like an extended vacation, you'll probably be disappointed. There's nothing wrong with wanting to do more gardening or play more golf. But most satisfied retirees also look beyond themselves to set real-life goals, whether it's starting their own business, writing a family history, traveling to all seven continents or taking care of their grandchildren. Keeping both your mind and body active can contribute to greater happiness and longevity.

2. Are you going to work? According to one survey, three quarters of today's workers expect to work part time after they retire. But only about one quarter of retirees actually do. Why the difference? Many people believe their old employer will hire them back as a consultant, or they think they can land an interesting new job. But expectations often don't match reality.

If you plan to work after retirement, scope out your opportunities ahead of time. Would you like to volunteer for your church? Start now. Interested in teaching for a university? See if you can teach a class now. By practicing your retirement, you can find out what you really want to do (it may not be what you think), and meet new people, too.

3. Figure out your health insurance. For most people this means signing up for Medicare at age 65, along with a supplemental insurance plan. But if you retire before age 65, you need to obtain your own health insurance. Many people can keep coverage from an prior employer, or get insurance through a professional association. The Affordable Care Act also now brings new options to early retirees. Whatever your situation, make sure your health insurance doesn't lapse.

4. Take inventory of your assets. The main difference between working and retirement is that you no longer get a paycheck in retirement. Many experts insist you need $1 million in assets to support a comfortable retirement. Some say less; others say more. You should take a realistic picture of your financial assets, including pensions, retirement accounts and all other resources (don't forget to factor in your debts) to see if you have the resources to support yourself for 20 or 30 years.

5. Determine where your retirement income will come from. You must turn your assets into the stream of income you'll need to pay your bills. Add up your monthly income from pensions, Social Security and any other sources. Then figure out how you're going to produce income from your retirement accounts and personal savings. It can be a complicated process, so consult a professional if you need help.

6. Decide when to sign up for Social Security. Conventional wisdom says you receive full benefits once you hit full retirement age, which is 67 for most of us. The better way to look at it: you're eligible to begin benefits anytime between age 62 and 70, on a sliding scale. The longer you wait, the bigger your check.

7. Account for unexpected expenses. Consider how you'll handle non-routine expenses in retirement such as a large medical expense or major home repair. Will you have to help support a grandchild? Do you want to leave an inheritance for children or a favorite charity? Also, consider the effects of inflation over time and the risk of outliving your assets.

8. Make a plan. Now that you've collected your thoughts and analyzed your situation, don't just sit there. Make your retirement plan. Dream big. Think outside the box. Share your thoughts. Then get ready to enjoy the retirement of your dreams.

- Employees voluntarily terminating employment with the City shall be paid for all earned, but unused accrued vacation.
- Employees must be actively employed at the time of performance award disbursement to be eligible to receive pay for performance pay.

Department of Employee Trust Funds (ETF)/Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS)

The Department of Employee Trust Funds (ETF) administers the State's Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS), Local Annuitant Health Plan (LAHP), the State's Life Insurance Program, and the Wisconsin Deferred Compensation (WDC) Program. Information regarding these benefits is available on their web site. The website is very comprehensive—it includes brochures, forms, employee bulletins, and helpful links to other government agencies, such as Social Security/Medicare, etc.

ETF and WRS are used interchangeably within this document.

Anyone planning to retire will need to contact ETF to request their WRS retirement benefit estimate. The City does not administer this benefit. If your benefit will begin before you reach age 62, ETF recommends you send them a copy of your age-62 Social Security benefit projection with your request for WRS retirement estimates. ETF will use these projected amounts to calculate your accelerated payment option estimates.

After employees receive their retirement annuity packet from ETF, they should review annuity options and the estimated amounts for each. ETF can answer questions regarding minimum retirement age, vesting requirements, creditable coverage, payment options, tax liability, etc.

Complete the ETF retirement packet, choosing the annuity option that best fits your needs, and mail back to them, up to 90 days in advance of your retirement date. Allow ample time when choosing your retirement date for ETF to meet your expectations to begin receiving your monthly pension payment.

Visit ETF's website at <https://etf.wi.gov/retirement> to answer many of the questions you may have regarding your upcoming retirement.

Accrued Sick Leave

Earned, but unused sick leave will be calculated and you will be provided with your Sick Leave Conversion Account balance. This amount is determined by your current rate of pay times 100% of your remaining unused sick leave, up to the maximum balance, or per the language of the applicable collective bargaining agreement. To be eligible to continue with the City's medical and/or dental insurance and be eligible for Sick Leave Conversion, you must meet the minimum qualifications, and apply for a retirement annuity from the Wisconsin Retirement System or qualify to receive a disability pension as defined by Chapter 40 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

Your Sick Leave Conversion Account balance can be used towards the payment of post-retirement insurance* premiums through the City of De Pere or insurance* premiums through any insurance carrier of your choosing. Sick Leave cannot be paid out in a lump sum. If an outside insurance carrier is chosen, premiums for health insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance or long-term care insurance coverage can be reimbursed quarterly from your sick leave balance, provided proof of insurance coverage (your insurance card) and premiums paid (documentation of premium from insurance carrier) is presented to the Payroll/Accounting Specialist. In the case of an employee's death following retirement, the surviving spouse may have access to accrued but unused sick leave for medical insurance premiums.

Represented employees will follow the provisions of their collective bargaining agreement (CBA) regarding the type(s) of insurance they can use sick leave conversion funds for. Non-represented employees can use sick leave conversion funds for medical insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, and/or long-term care insurance.*

Compensatory/Administrative Time

Exempt employees—no payment shall be made for accrued administrative time upon retirement.

Non-exempt (hourly) employees—the balance of your compensatory time will be paid out upon retirement.

Dental/Medical

Options available upon retirement will be reviewed with you. See pages 10 - 13 Medical/Dental Insurance Options at Retirement

Floating Holidays

Any unused balance, pro-rated for the year in which you retire, must be used before you retire. Floating holiday pay is not paid out.

Life Insurance

Options to maintain coverage after you retire will be discussed with you. The cost and benefit amount of life insurance at the time of retirement depends on your age at retirement. For those that maintain life insurance during retirement or retire at 67 or older, the City has elected a continuation of 50% of the basic insurance benefit while age 67 and after.

National Holidays

To receive holiday pay, employees must be employed at the time of the holiday and must work or use paid time off for the work day before and the work day after the recognized holiday. Represented Police and Fire employee should see their labor contract.

Vacation Payout

Earned, but unused vacation will be calculated for you. You will have the choice of:

- 1) having your unused vacation time paid out on your last paycheck or
- 2) placing these monies into your deferred compensation account

Medical/Dental Insurance Options at Retirement

The City must receive confirmation that you have applied for a retirement annuity from WRS in order to be eligible to continue your medical and/or dental insurance coverage through the City, subject to the approval and requirements of the insurance carrier, or insurance policy carried by the City. You are responsible for the premiums. The Payroll Department will provide you with a form to complete regarding your insurance options. At this time, we do not have automatic withdrawals from bank accounts.

Once a retiree cancels their coverage, they are no longer eligible to apply for coverage through the City in the future.

General Information

- The Department of Employee Trust Funds offers a Local Annuitant Health Plan (LAHP) for local retirees. You may want to discuss this option with the ETF representative when you meet to discuss your retirement options, as premiums, deductibles, and out-of-pocket maximums may be lower than the City of De Pere retiree plan.
- The City's Benefit's Broker, M3 Insurance, has client executives dedicated to helping employees preparing for retirement to find health insurance that best fits their needs. Please see the information sheet on page 12 for more information.
- If you wish to terminate your coverage at a later date, or want to drop spouse/dependent coverage, you need to notify us in writing of your intentions by completing and submitting the Employee Medical, Dental, and Vision Enrollment, Cancellation and Waiver Form to Human Resources, prior to the effective date of the change.
- Premiums are due at the City Clerk's Office by the 25th of the month prior to the month of coverage. For example, the premium for May is due April 25; the premium for June is due May 25, etc.
- If your payment is not received timely, your coverage could be cancelled.
- Under the federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA), employees and their families who lose group health coverage because of certain life events (including retirement), are able to continue their coverage under the employer's group plan, at their own expense, for limited periods of time. When coverage ceases, you will be sent COBRA continuation paperwork through our third-party administrator. Please read this information over carefully.
- Currently, dependents can remain under your medical/dental plan until the end of the month in which they turn age 26; they will then be automatically terminated and offered COBRA continuation coverage. Our third-party administrator will provide the necessary paperwork to elect COBRA continuation coverage.
- If you pass away and you and your spouse/dependent children were covered under the City's insurance plan at the time of your death, your widow/dependents will be eligible for COBRA continuation coverage pursuant to state, and federal regulations. Your spouse/dependent children will be responsible for the payment of COBRA premiums.
- COBRA rates are listed below:

2025 COBRA Rates
	Medical	Delta Dental	Dental Associates
Single	$744.22	$45.81	$38.18
Employee + 1	$1,385.17	N/A	N/A
Family	$2,271.90	$139.24	$108.95

Medical Options

- If you wish to continue your coverage but have no Sick Leave Conversion Account balance or choose to defer your use of Sick Leave Conversion Account balance, you will need to pay your premiums by personal check to the City Clerk's Office.
- If you wish to continue your coverage and use your Sick Leave Conversion Account balance to pay for your premiums, you will need to notify payroll. No further payments will be issued once your account reaches a zero balance. You will then be responsible for paying the premiums by personal check, or terminating your coverage.
- If you wish to terminate your coverage and defer use of your Sick Leave Conversion Account balance, you will be responsible for notifying the City when you want to begin using your Sick Leave balance. To begin using your Sick Leave Conversion Account balance, your notice needs to be received by the Payroll Department no later than sixty (60) calendar months from the date of your retirement (the official date that is reported to ETF). The City does not send out reminder notices.
- As of the date this handbook was updated, retirees pay 132% of the total monthly premium rate. The premium rate for retirees is set by the City Council and is subject to change. The retiree medical rates are listed below.

2025 Retiree Medical Rates
Single	$963.11
Employee + 1	$1,792.57
Family	$2,940.10

- Retiree coverage is not supplemental coverage; coverage is identical to what you had as an active employee.
- When you turn 65, Medicare is your primary benefit payor; the City's insurance carrier is the secondary payor. If Medicare Eligible retirees do not sign up for Medicare Parts A and B in a timely manner, they will be inconvenienced by a lapse in coverage, and they may be liable for claims that Medicare would have paid.
 - Please note: employees who retire on or after October 1, 2014 (with the exception of represented public safety employees covered under a labor contract) shall not be allowed to remain on the City provided group hospitalization and medical insurance plan after becoming Medicare eligible. The spouse of a retiree shall not be allowed to remain on the City provided group hospitalization and medical insurance plan after becoming Medicare eligible. A non-Medicare eligible spouse of a Medicare eligible retiree may remain on the City-provided group hospitalization and medical insurance plan until becoming eligible for Medicare.
- Retirees covered under the City's insurance are responsible for notifying Human Resources when they become Medicare eligible.
- Please contact the Human Resources Department if you need a Certificate of Creditable Coverage.
