WHAT: Local public safety departments will be educating the community on how to safely share the streets

WHEN: Wednesday, May 9

PEDESTRIANS:
- Make eye contact with drivers
- Look left, right, & left again before crossing
- Cross at intersections or crosswalks

DRIVERS:
- Yield to pedestrians in the crosswalk
- Reduce speed in school zones
- Don't drive distracted

Brought to you by local municipalities and supported by the Center for Childhood Safety and Live54218
BE A BETTER PEDESTRIAN

1. Cross the street at corners, using traffic signals and crosswalks.
2. Watch for cars that are turning or backing up.
3. Put electronic devices down and keep heads up.
4. Make eye contact with drivers. Let them know you want to cross.
5. Always walk on sidewalks or paths. If there are no sidewalks, walk facing traffic as far to the left as possible.
7. Look left, right, and left again when crossing and keep looking as you cross.

Brought to you by local municipalities and supported by the Center for Childhood Safety and Live54218
BE A BETTER DRIVER

Yield to pedestrians at intersections and crosswalks. It's the law!

Enter and exit driveways and alleys slowly and carefully.

Scan the road ahead for pedestrians or bicyclists.

Eliminate any distractions inside your car so you can concentrate on the road and your surroundings.

Don't pass a vehicle that is yielding to pedestrians. It's the law!

Reduce speeds in school zones and neighborhoods.

Take extra time to look for people at intersections, on medians and on curbs.